BERL BERNHARD CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Berl Bernhard breathed life into Washington, D.C.'s spring sports scene a year ago when he brought the nation's capital a charter franchise in the United States Football League.

Bernhard's committment to the Washington, D.C. community doesn't stop there, however. "We intend to build a winner and we are prepared to do whatever possible to see that it happens," he says.

Considering his many successes in academics, athletics, politics, law and life, the multi-faceted Bernhard has proven to be a man who can get the job done.

While an all-state basketball player in high school, and honorable mention all-state offensive end, Bernhard's "gridiron career" was halted in 1947, when the young freshman halfback at Dartmouth College tore a cartilage in his knee. But Bernhard is quick to admit that his first love, in sports anyway, is sailing.

An avid yachtsman for the past quarter century, Bernhard, 54, has become one of the more successful skippers in the country. The highlight of his yacht-racing career came in 1981, when he captained his yacht, "Invictus", to a first place finish both in class and overall performance in the bi-annual Annapolis to Newport open sea race.

Yet, it is away from the sports scene where Bernhard has received far more national acclaim.

It began at Dartmouth College where he served as student body president and led the successful fight against racial discrimination in fraternities on campus. He was elected Phi Beta Kappa in his junior year, and graduated magna cum laude, with highest distinction in government in 1951. From there, he went to law school at Yale, where he served as a graduate instructor in the undergraduate political science department, before receiving his J.D. degree in 1954.

After working as a law clerk for Judge Luther M. Youngdahl in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, he quickly became the federal government's newest "whiz kid".

In 1960, the Washington, D.C. Junior Chamber of Commerce awarded him the Arthur S. Flemming Award as one of the "Ten Outstanding Young Men in Federal Government". That same year, the 30-year old Bernhard was named Deputy Director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and opened his own law firm.

In 1961, President John F. Kennedy nominated him, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, he became Director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, a position he held until November, 1963.

In 1962, he was honored as one of the "Ten Outstanding Young Men in the United States" by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. Also in 1963, he became an Adjunct Professor of Law at the Georgetown University Law Center.

In 1963, he went to East Africa as Special United States Representative to the anticipated East African Federation, and in 1964 he served as consultant to the office of Secretary of State Dean Rusk, and special consultant to Undersecretary W. Averell Harriman. He remained in that capacity for four years.

Even after he left the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, Bernhard continued to fight for racial and educational equality. In 1965, President Lyndon Johnson appointed him Special Counsel and Director of the White House Conference "To Fulfill These Rights". In 1966, President Johnson appointed him a member of the first Board of Higher Education established for the District of Columbia.

His involvement in the national political scene continued to expand. From 1965 until 1971, he served as both the General Counsel for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee and as Special Counsel for the Democratic National Committee.

One prominent Democrat, Senator Edmund S. Muskie, especially valued Bernhard's input in his political fortunes. In 1968, Bernhard was Muskie's speech writer, and in 1972, he became National Campaign Manager for Muskie's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination. In 1980, after Jimmy Carter appointed Muskie Secretary of State, Bernhard returned to the State Department and to Muskie, as Senior Advisor to the Secretary of State, a position that he held for one year.

Bernhard now serves as chairman of the law firm, Verner, Liipfert, Bernhard and McPherson, Chartered, which he co-founded in 1960. Comprised of almost 70 lawyers, it has attracted such clients as The National Bank of Washington, Pan American World Airways, Allbritton Communications, LTV Corporation, Semiconductor Industry Association, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, The American Film Institute, The Travelers Insurance Company, American Express, McDonald's, Electronic Data Systems, Inc., First American Bank, N.A., Florida East Coast Railway, and Providence and Worcester Railroad Company.

In addition, he serves as a Director of the National Bank of Washington, as a trustee of his alma mater, Dartmouth College, a member of the Board of the Nelson A. Rockefeller Center for the Social Sciences, and a member of the board of "Democrats for the 80's", a political action committee started by the Honorable and Mrs. W. Averell Harriman.

A considerable amount of Bernhard's work has been published in the legal journals, including articles in the George Washington Law Review, the North Carolina Law Review, the St. Louis Review, the Georgetown Law Journal, and Law and Contemporary Problems (Duke University Law School). He is certified to practice law both in the District of Columbia and before the Supreme Court of the United States.

KAREN W. RANDALL VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Berl Bernhard knows where to turn when there is an especially challenging job to be done. He turns to Karen Randall.

Last summer, after surveying the results of the Federals' inaugural season, his first post-season decision was to make Randall the Federals' Chief Operating Officer. She is in day-to-day charge of the team's business operations.

There is nothing in the background of this energetic 33 year-old native of Macon, Georgia to suggest that she might wind up running a professional football franchise. A product of an all-girls southern high school and a graduate of Georgia Southern College, she finds herself the highest ranking woman in the United States Football League.

A background of college basketball and volleyball, with the emphasis on teamwork, may be what has defined the direction of Randall's career. While others got the attention, it was Randall who found herself in the middle of things.

She went to work for the Senate Budget Committee, where, her experience on Capitol Hill first under Senator Ed Muskie and later under Senator Ernest Hollings, gave her a background in fiscal matters that served her well when she joined the Federals as Controller in 1982.

Actually, Randall's title last year was Vice-President for Corporate Planning and Development. The fancy titles are gone now, and everyone knows what they are supposed to be doing in the Federals front office. Credit the admittedly pragmatic managerial style of Randall with the Federals new down-to-earth organization.

DICK MYERS
GENERAL MANAGER AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Though one of the USFL's youngest general managers, Dick Myers enters his 13th year in professional football, his second season with the Washington Federals.

Possessing a wide scope of sports administration experience, the 37-year old Myers came to the Federals following nine years service with the Washington Redskins, the last four as Assistant General Manager under Bobby Beathard. Myers, a native of Afton, Iowa, also spent two years as a player personnel assistant with the National Football League before joining the Redskins and George Allen in 1973.

Myers, who also holds a Masters Degree from Ohio University's Sports Administration program, is fulfilling a life-long ambition in his role with the Federals. "I love what I'm doing. I knew at a very young age that I wanted to be involved in sports all my life," says Myers. "My whole career has been a dream life for me, and building a pro franchise is particularly exciting."

Myers began his experience in the field as an undergraduate at Cornell College in Iowa. A 1968 Cornell College graduate, Myers spent three years as the school's sports information director and still found time to earn three varsity baseball letters.

Upon graduating from Cornell College, Myers entered Florida State University's School of Law hoping to pursue that angle into the sports administration field. Just as he completed his first semester at Florida State, however, Myers found he had been accepted to Ohio University's graduate program.

While at Ohio U. in 1970, he served an internship with the Cleveland Browns and was also a graduate assistant in the O.U. sports information department. Myers received his degree in sports administration from O.U. in March, 1971 and promptly went to work on the sports desk of United Press International in New York.

It was after a brief stay with UPI, that Myers accepted a position as Player Personnel Coordinator with the NFL League office in New York. He was responsible for handling waivers, player contracts, trades and the college draft. While in this position, Myers experienced nearly all facets of pro football management.

He was with the NFL for nearly two years when Head Coach George Allen asked him to join the Redskins as an administrative assistant in 1973. Myers worked closely with Allen on all administrative affairs and handled matters with the league office regarding player personnel. He was also responsible for player contract negotiations and served as a liaison between the club, the management council, and the NFL Players Association.

When Allen was replaced following the 1977 season, Myers was appointed Assistant General Manager under Beathard. Myers soon broadened his responsibilities to include the business side along with the daily football operations. He coordinated the Redskins training camp and in September, 1981, Myers added the role of Business Manager, a position he held until joining the Federals last July.

In addition, Myers is on the Ohio University Sports Administration program's permanent advisory board, and was recently named the recipient of the program's Distinguished Alumni Award, only the second graduate to receive this award since the program's inception in 1967. He also serves on the UFSL's College-Pro Relations Committee.

Myers and his wife, Dolores, reside in Herndon, Virginia. They have two daughters, Julie, currently in the fifth grade, and Jaime, born in June, 1983.

RAY JAUCH HEAD COACH AND VICE PRESIDENT

Asked to describe Ray Jauch's coaching philosophy, Hugh Campbell, a coaching rival of Jauch's for the past six seasons, said, "Ray Jauch is the kind of coach that builds his team over a period of time. His teams have historically struggled for the first year he's coached them, and that is because he is insistent that things be done in a certain way. One of those ways is that he won't sell off the future for the present."

A quick check of Ray Jauch's coaching history reveals that the second-year head coach of the Washington Federals is indeed a builder, as well as a winner. The Federals 4-14 mark last season was only Jauch's third losing season in 13 years.

As the fourth winningest coach in Canadian Football League history, Jauch, 45, successfully restructured two teams during his 12 seasons in the CFL before coming to the United States Football League.

Implementing a philosophy of long range planning based on his penchant for developing young players, Jauch took the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from their status as the league's poorest in 1970, to a team so powerful, it has missed only three Grey Cups (CFL Championship) since 1973.

In 1978, the Mendota, Illinois native assumed the head coaching post at Winnipeg and conducted a major roster shake-up, again instituting his own system. After a 4-12 season in 1979, Jauch guided the Blue Bombers to 32 wins in 48 games thereafter, including an 11-5 mark in 1982. Only a 24-21 loss to Edmonton on November 21 in the CFL's Western Division title game, Jauch's last in Canada, prevented Winnipeg from reaching the Grey Cup.

His football career began at Mendota High School in Illinois where he starred in the backfield with former Minnesota Viking Bill Brown. He went on to attend the University of Iowa and played halfback under Hawkeye coach Forrest Evashevski. In 1969, Jauch's junior year, Iowa advanced to the Rose Bowl and defeated the University of California with heralded Joe Kapp as quarterback.

It was while at Iowa that Jauch first attracted the attention of Federals' General Manager Dick Myers. At the time, Myers was a youngster living in Iowa and, naturally, rooting for the Hawkeyes with Jauch in the backfield.

Jauch graduated from Iowa in 1960 with a B.S. degree in Physical Education. Though drafted by the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, Jauch opted to play in the CFL and signed with Winnipeg. Nicknamed "Toy Bulldog" by the CFL fans because of his size, Jauch played two seasons at Winnipeg under Head Coach Bud Grant, now with the Minnesota Vikings. Jauch's playing career ended prematurely, however, when he tore an achilles tendon during the 1961 Grey Cup game.

One year later, Jauch began his coaching career with the St. James Rods, a club football team in Canada. In 1964, he returned to Iowa as an assistant under Head Coach Jerry Burns. Two years later, Jauch went back to Canada as an assistant to Neill Armstrong, head coach of Edmonton. In 1970, when Armstrong went to the Chicago Bears, Jauch was offered and accepted the head coaching post with the Eskimos.

In his first year with Edmonton, Jauch, inheriting a team that had been 5-11, led the Eskimos to a 9-7 record. For his efforts, Jauch was named CFL's Coach of the Year. All told, he steered Edmonton to the playoffs six times in seven years. Edmonton advanced to the Grey Cup three times under Jauch, winning the CFL championship game in 1975.

Jauch, who had taken an active leadership approach in all areas of player personnel development in addition to his on the field duties, stepped down as head coach in 1977 to become Edmonton's Director of Football Operations. He was succeeded by Hugh Campbell, who held the position for six seasons before joining the USFL's Los Angeles Express.

In 1978, Jauch returned to the sidelines as Head Coach of Winnipeg. The Blue Bombers advanced to the playoffs four of five seasons under Jauch. His 1980 squad posted a 10-6 record, and again Jauch was named the league's top coach. In 1981, Winnipeg was 11-5, the club's best record since 1965, and set a team scoring record with 517 points.

In 12 seasons in the CFL, Jauch compiled a 117-85-4 (.571) record, while suffering just two losing seasons.

An avid hunting and fishing enthusiast, Jauch and his wife, Sarah, have four sons, Jeff, John, Jim and Joey. The Jauchs reside in Vienna, Virginia. Jimmy Jauch, a senior at Oakton High School, played wide receiver and defensive back this past fall.

CHARLES GARCIA
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Charles Garcia became the Federals Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel on July 1, 1983. In his dual role, Garcia is responsible for directing all phases of the scouting operation and assisting Federals General Manager Dick Myers in the area of contract negotiations.

The 48-year old Garcia has spent the last 11 seasons as a scout with the National Football League, including the past four years as an area scout with the Cleveland Browns. Garcia, whose assessment of talent is highly respected throughout professional football, was responsible for scouting the southern part of the country for the Browns, including his home state of Texas.

Prior to joining the Browns in 1979, Garcia served as a scout for the Seattle Seahawks during the first seasons of their existence. He began his personnel work in 1972 as a member of the CEPO scouting combine.

"Not only is Charles one of the most respected evaluators of talent in the NFL," said Myers, "but he also had the opportunity to help put together an expansion franchise while at Seattle. Both Ray Jauch and I are excited about having him join us."

Garcia, a native of Rosenberg, Texas, began his career as a football coach and athletic director at Cuero (Texas) High School in 1957, after graduating from Prairie View State, where he played football. After one year at Cuero, Garcia spent three years in the Army.

He then served as head coach and athletic director at Hitchcock (Texas) High School and followed that as defensive coordinator at Pinkston High School in Dallas, Texas. Prior to joining CEPO, Garcia was defensive coordinator at Bishop College for four seasons. He also served as a coach at Jackson State.

Charles and his wife, Shirley, live in Vienna, Virginia and have five children. Rodney and twins Terri and Tory are currently students at Prairie View A&M University, while Carlton is attending Boston University. Their oldest daughter, Tonya, is a graduate of Prairie View.

LEO McKILLIP
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Leo McKillip begins his second season as the Federals' defensive coordinator, making this the 11th year he has worked with Head Coach Ray Jauch. McKillip served as defensive coordinator under Jauch with the Canadian Football League's Edmonton Eskimos from 1974 to 1978. The 55-year old McKillip then joined Jauch at Winnipeg in 1978 where he served as defensive coach of the Blue Bombers for five seasons.

He began his coaching career in Kimball, Nebraska in 1954 at the high school level. A year later he joined the Idaho State University staff and served as an assistant coach for eleven years. In 1965, McKillip took over as Head Coach at Idaho State and in 1970 moved to St. Mary's College as Head Coach. From St. Mary's he joined Jauch and the Edmonton staff in 1974.

As a player, McKillip attended Notre Dame and played on the 1949 National Championship team under Notre Dame coach Frank Leahy. Born in Denver, Colorado, McKillip was raised in Nebraska. After graduating from Notre Dame, he served a two-year stint in the U.S. Air Force. McKillip earned his Masters Degree from Nebraska in 1955 and his Doctorate in Physical Education from the University of Utah in 1972.

McKillip and his wife, Patsy, have two sons, Blaine and Creighton. The McKillips reside in Oakton, Virginia.

DICK BIELSKI
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bielski, 51, began his professional coaching career in 1964 as receivers coach for Don Shula and the Baltimore Colts. After nine seasons, he accepted a position as an offensive aide for the Washington Redskins under George Allen. In 1977, Bielski rejoined the Baltimore staff and remained through the 1981 season as the pass offense coach for Mike McCormack.

A star fullback and placekicker for the University of Maryland, Bielski was drafted in the first round of the 1955 college draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. He played for the Eagles five years as a tight end before he was traded to the Dallas Cowboys where he started for two years. In 1961, he was again traded to the Baltimore Colts where he ended his professional career after two years.

Bielski caught 107 passes for 1,205 yards and 12 touchdowns, while kicking 58 extra points and 25 field goals as a pro.

He and his wife, Jo, reside in Towson, Maryland.

GENE STAUBER
DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Another familiar face on Ray Jauch's coaching staff, Gene Stauber, enters his second season as the Federals' defensive line coach. Stauber had previously served as assistant under Jauch for five seasons with the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He had previous coaching experience in the professional ranks as defensive backfield coach of the CFL's Calgary Stampeders in 1976.

A native of Indianapolis, Indiana, Stauber has a total of 37 years coaching experience, 29 of those with major college programs.

He began coaching in 1947 at the University of Toledo, after having served in World War II in the 362nd Infantry, 91st Division in Africa and Italy. Even in wartime he had time for football as he played in the "Spaghetti Bowl" game between the 5th Army and the 12th Air Force in Florence, Italy in 1945.

After returning, Stauber graduated from Toledo in 1947 with a degree in Education. He received a Masters Degree in Science from the University of Michigan in 1951.

He went on to assistant coaching posts at Michigan, Delaware, Idaho, Nebraska, California, Illinois and Indiana State. During that span, Stauber, with Illinois and California, appeared in the Rose Bowl in 1959 and 1964.

BRUCE BEATTY
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

With over 30 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience, Bruce Beatty enters his second season as the offensive line coach for the Federals.

A graduate of Miami University of Ohio, Beatty began his coaching career in 1951 at his alma mater, under head coach Ara Parseghian. After five years at Miami, Parseghian moved on to Northwestern, taking Beatty with him as offensive line and special team's coach, a position he held for eight more seasons under Parseghian.

In 1969, Beatty began his professional coaching career with Clive Rush at New England. After four seasons, he joined Bill Peterson as defensive line coach with the Houston Oilers.

Following the 1974 season, Beatty accepted the position of offensive line coach with Rick Forzano and the Detroit Lions. In 1977, he moved on to coach the special teams at Buffalo.

Returning to collegiate athletics in 1980, Beatty joined Ed Cavanaugh at Army. He remained there through the 1982 season until joining the Federals' staff.

Beatty and his wife, Evelyn, reside in Fairfax, Virginia.

BILL HAPPEL
DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD COACH

A former teammate of Head Coach Ray Jauch at the University of Iowa, Bill Happel joined the Federals staff in March, 1983 as a part time offensive backfield coach. This spring the 47-year old Happel becomes a full time assistant under Jauch, serving as defensive backfield coach.

During his player career at Iowa, Happel was a three-year-letterman and a starter on the Hawkeyes' 1956 Big 10 Championship team that posted a 9-1 record and defeated Oregon State 35-19 in the Rose Bowl. He returned to the Rose Bowl in 1959 as an assistant coach for the Hawkeyes.

Happel started his coaching career in 1958 when he became head freshman coach at Iowa. At the time he was the youngest full-time staff member in Division I. After two years as freshman coach, he became a full-time assistant for the varsity and coached the defensive backfield through the 1965 season.

In 1972, after a brief hiatus, Happel became defensive coordinator and General Manager of the Cedar Rapids Raiders, a semipro team in Central Iowa. He later returned to collegiate athletics and coached at Colorado (1978) and Minnesota (1979-82).

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Happel has three children, sons Bill and Bobby, and daughter Jana. Bill, Jr. just finished his sophomore season as a wide receiver at Iowa.

TED VACTOR
OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD
SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Former Washington Redskin Ted Vactor will serve as Offensive Backfield Coach and Special Teams Coach in his second year with the Federals. Vactor, 39, spent five seasons as head coach at the University of the District of Columbia before joining the Federals. He played with the Redskins from 1969 through 1974 as a defensive standout and a leader of the special teams.

In 1971, Vactor teamed with Speedy Duncan to give the Redskins the number one punt return ranking in the National Football League. Vactor returned 22 punts that season for an 8.3 yard average, third best in the NFC.

Vactor played under Head Coach Bob Devaney at Nebraska from 1963 to 1965. While at Nebraska, Vactor twice played in the Orange Bowl and once in the Cotton Bowl. He was named first team All-Big Eight in 1965 as a junior defensive back.

JERRY FAULS
PERSONNEL SCOUT

Jerry Fauls, who was a part-time scout for the Federals last season, will serve in a full-time capacity for the team this season.

Prior to joining the Federals, Fauls spent 21 years as Head Coach at Jeb Stuart High School in Falls Church, Virginia. During his stay at Stuart, the Raiders were recognized as one of the finest football teams in Virginia.

Fauls, 58, was born in Struthers, Ohio. He played fullback at Hiram College in Ohio, where he graduated with a degree in Physical Education in 1951. He began his coaching career immediately afterward as an assistant coach at Ohio's Lisbon High School.

Following six seasons at Lisbon, Fauls took an assistant coaching post at Falls Church High School in Virginia. In 1959, he made the move to Stuart where he remained as a head coach until retiring in 1980.

Fauls received his Masters Degree in Education with an emphasis on counselling from George Washington University in 1970. Fauls and his wife, Dolores, reside in Falls Church, Virginia.

THE 1983 SEASON IN REVIEW

CHICAGO 28, WASHINGTON 7

Sunday, March 6 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—Former Washington Redskins Head Coach George Allen made his return to the nation's capital a successful one as Allen's Chicago Blitz defeated the Federals, 28-7, in a pouring rain. Chicago's defense held the Federals to one first down in the first half and a total of just 24 yards. It wasn't until midway through the third period that the Federals chalked up their second first down. Chicago's offense, meanwhile, benefitted from excellent field position as they began seven of their first eight drives on their own 31-yard line or better and gained 256 yards in the first half. Blitz quarterback Greg Landry hit 15 of his first 17 passes while taking the Blitz to a 21-0 first half lead. Trumaine Johnson caught 11 passes for 158 yards. He grabbed a 23-yard scoring pass in the second quarter and his 33-yard reception resulted in the game's first touchdown when his fumble on the Federals' two-yard line was recovered by Wamon Buggs in the endzone. Federals rookie Mike Hohensee relieved quarterback Kim McQuilken in the second quarter and his 19-yard scoring pass to Walker Lee with 0:08 to play gave the Federals their only points.

LOS ANGELES 20, WASHINGTON 3

Monday, March 14 at Los Angeles Coliseum

LOS ANGELES—The Federals not only lost to the Los Angeles Express, 20-3, they also lost quarterback Mike Hohensee, running back Craig James and wide receiver Reggie Smith to injuries that would sideline them all for at least a month. Smith dislocated his foot in the first quarter and in the second period, Hohensee suffered a fractured sternum when hit by Express defensive end Greg Fields while throwing an incomplete pass. James injured his back just six plays after Hohensee went down. He was hit by Express linebacker Danny Rich and cornerback Tyrone Justin on a sweep to the right side. The Federals trailed 17-3 at halftime and although they held Los Angeles to just 108 yards total offense in the second half, could mount no offense of their own. The Federals drove to the Express 35, 32 and 19-yard lines in the second half, but two sacks and an interception by quarterback Kim McQuilken prevented the Federals from scoring. Los Angeles quarterback Mike Rae played only in the first half, but threw two scoring passes to tight end Ricky Ellis for the game's only touchdowns.

BOSTON 19, WASHINGTON 16

Sunday, March 20 at Nickerson Field

BOSTON—When Federals' placekicker Obed Ariri lined up for a 42-yard field goal with 0:51 left to play and the score tied, it appeared Washington was headed for its first victory. It didn't turn out that way. A high snap from center avoided holder Mark Sanford and the ball rolled all the way to the Federals 35. Two plays later, with just 0:27 left, former Atlanta Falcon Tim Mazzetti kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal. The Federals led 16-9 with less than five minutes to play, but another errant snap from center this one aimed at Feds punter Steve Hoffman, who was standing at the Washington one-yard line, gave Boston the ball six-inches away from a touchdown. Richard Crump scored on the next play tying the game. Washington then marched 58 yards in 12 plays setting up Ariri's final attempt. Special teams did play an important role in the game. Mike Matocha and Mike Hurst tackled Breaker punter Mitch Hoopes at the Boston 31 setting a field goal in the first quarter and a 47-yard punt return by Mike Guess set up the touchdown that gave the Federals a 16-9 lead.

WASHINGTON 22, MICHIGAN 16 (OT)

Sunday, March 27 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—The Federals lost a 16-7 halftime lead, but scored on the first possession of overtime to capture their first win in a driving rain storm that lasted the entire game. Michigan lost six fumbles, including one by tight end Mike Cobb late in the game that appeared to sew it up for the Federals. The Panthers, however, stopped the Federals at midfield and then drove 60 yards in 11 plays to set up Novo Bojovic's 43-yard field goal which tied the score at 16-all with 0:06 to play. Washington won the toss prior to overtime and quarterback Kim McQuilken, enjoying his best day as a pro, drove Washington 72 yards in six plays while hitting three of five passes including a 22-yard strike to Joey Walters for the game-winner. Washington built its lead thanks to McQuilken's passing in the first half (14 of 24 for 194 yards). Leading 16-7, Washington's Bennie Smith recovered a fumble by Panther quarterback Bobby Hebert at the Michigan 12. Robert Pennywell intercepted McQuilken two plays later and on the next play Hebert hit Derek Holloway with a 69-yard scoring pass making the score 16-13.

PHILADELPHIA 34, WASHINGTON 3

Sunday, April 3 at Veterans Stadium

PHILADELPHIA—Five turnovers and continued woes in the kicking game led to the Federals 34-3 loss to Philadelphia on Easter Sunday. Newly acquired punter-kicker Dana Moore, in what would be his only game as a placekicker, missed field goals of 34 and 32 yards. The Stars rested Kelvin Bryant for nearly three quarters, but his replacement, Allen Harvin, more than made up the slack with 109 yards on 14 carries in just the second half. Washington trailed 13-3 with the ball at midfield on their first possession of the second half. The Federals, however, managed just one first down in the third quarter while Harvin scored two touchdowns giving Philadelphia a 27-3 lead entering the fourth period. Harvin's second score was set up by a fumbled punt by Federals wide receiver Mike Harris at the Washington 11. Washington twice drove deep into Stars' territory in the final quarter, but a missed field goal and an interception by Stars defensive back Jon Sutton quieted the threats.

ARIZONA 22, WASHINGTON 21

Monday, April 11 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—Quarterback Joe Gilliam was inserted into the Federals lineup and although he passed for 203 yards and two touchdowns, Washington lost 22-21 to the Arizona Wranglers in a Monday night contest. Gilliam hit 11 of 31 passes and threw his first touchdown pass since October 5, 1975 while with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Gilliam twice hit Joey Walters with touchdown passes, the second, a 17-yard strike just before halftime gave the Federals a 21-13 advantage. Although a 49-yard field goal by Jim Asmus cut Arizona's deficit to 21-16, Gilliam took Washington from its own 44 to the Wranglers' one-yard line as the third quarter expired. Arizona held, however, as James Mayberry was stopped for no gain three straight times and on fourth down, Gilliam's pass for Walters was overthrown. One play later, from his two-yard line, Arizona quarterback Alan Risher hit Jackie Flowers on a 98-yard scoring pass, longest in the USFL, giving the Wranglers the lead. It was Flowers' seventh touchdown in six weeks. Interceptions by Aaron Mitchell and Tommy Wilcox thwarted two scoring attempts by the Federals late in the game.

NEW JERSEY 23, WASHINGTON 22

Sunday, April 17 at Giants Stadium

NEW JERSEY—Ken Olson, the third placekicker used by the Federals through the first seven games, missed a 33-yard field goal with 0:11 to play that allowed New Jersey to escape with a 23-22 win over the Federals. It was the second straight one-point setback for the Federals, who became the first team to lose consecutive one-point games since the 1959 Cleveland Browns. Joe Gilliam, who filled in for starter Mike Hohensee in the second quarter, connected on 10 of 22 passes for 199 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The Federals trailed 23-8 early in the fourth period thanks to two touchdown runs by Herschel Walker, who rushed for 142 yards. Gilliam brought Washington back with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Joey Walters and a 52-yard strike to Craig James on the Federals' first two possessions of the fourth quarter. Gilliam got one more chance, and behind the running of James and Billy Taylor the Federals drove in nine plays from their own 13 to the Generals 16-yard line setting up Olson's last second field goal attempt which sailed wide to the right. James gained 105 yards in total offense in his first game back since his injury.

TAMPA BAY 30, WASHINGTON 23

Sunday, April 24 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—Quarterback Jimmy Jordan and running back Carl Franks, a pair of late fill-ins, combined to lead Tampa Bay to a come-from-behind 30-23 victory over the Federals on a soggy field at RFK Stadium. Jordan, filling in for starter John Reaves, who fractured his right wrist a week earlier, hit 30 of 45 passes for 345 yards and threw three touchdowns to Eric Truvillion. Franks, signed three days earlier, filled in for the Bandits at their injury-riddled fullback spot and rushed for 43 yards including a game-winning 18-yard touchdown run with 2:25 to play. Washington led 23-20 with 12 minutes to play, but Zenon Andrusyshyn's 31-yard field goal tied the game. Then at the 5:14 mark, Federals quarterback Mike Hohensee's pass on second and eight from the Washington 24 was intercepted by Leon Williams. Five plays later, Franks went up the middle for his game-deciding run. The Federals trailed 20-6 at halftime, but Mike Harris returned the second half kickoff 71 yards to set up one touchdown, and five minutes later, Federals free safety Doug Greene recovered a fumble by Sam Platt at the Bandits 34-yard line to set up the game-tying touchdown by Mike Holmes, who scored on a ten-yard pass from Hohensee. The Federals set a USFL record with 260 yards in kickoff returns—127 yards by Mike Harris and 121 by Eric Robinson, who had a 94-yard return for Washington's first score.

BIRMINGHAM 35, WASHINGTON 3

Sunday, May 1 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—For the second straight week the Federals faced a backup quarterback, as Bob Lane filled in for injured Reggie Collier, and for the fifth straight week the Federals lost. Birmingham took a 14-0 halftime lead, benefitted from five second-half Federals turnovers and handed Washington its worst loss of the season, 35-3. Lane completed 13 of 29 passes for 193 yards. None was more damaging than his 44-yard scoring strike to Ron Frederick with 0:04 left in the first half. The pass bounced off Stallions' receiver Johnny Dirden and bounced high in the air before Frederick hauled it in while in the end zone. Craig James' fumble at the Federals 22-yard line set up Birmingham's third touchdown early in the third period. Joe Gilliam replaced Mike Hohensee at quarterback in the second half, but threw four interceptions. The Federals penetrated Birmingham's 30-yard line just twice during the entire game. As a result, the Stallions received excellent field position the entire game including their last two scoring drives which began on their own 48 and the Federals 36, respectively.

CHICAGO 31, WASHINGTON 3

Sunday, May 8 at Soldier Field

CHICAGO—Just prior to the kickoff of this re-match with the Chicago Blitz, Federals starting quarterback Mike Hohensee, suffering from a suspected appendicitis, was pulled from the lineup. Kim McQuilken started in his place, but the Federals' offense sputtered for the second straight week as Washington fell 31-3. Washington had now gone nine straight quarters without a touchdown. The Federals gained just 187 yards in total offense and could muster just 25 yards in their last five possessions of the game. A 43-yard pass play from Greg Landry to Paul Ricker helped set up a Chicago touchdown on its first possession. The hosts made in 14-0 the second time they touched the ball. The key play in that 51-yard drive was Landry's 20-yard pass to Lenny Willis on third down and 14 at the Federals 29. Eddie Brown intercepted McQuilken's pass in the second quarter and returned it 35 yards to the Federals four, setting up Chicago's third touchdown of the half. The Federals' lone scoring drive came on their first possession of the second half when they drove 80 yards on eight plays, setting up Dale Castro's 21-yard field goal. McQuilken's 55-yard pass to Billy Taylor highlighted the drive. The Blitz added 10 more points in the fourth period and only a goal line stand led by Federals' linebacker Mike Corvino prevented Chicago from handing Washington its worst loss of the season.

OAKLAND 34, WASHINGTON 27

Monday, May 16 at Oakland Alameda County Coliseum

OAKLAND—Federals quarterback Mike Hohensee was stopped one foot short of the Oakland goal line on fourth down with 1:27 to play as a late drive by Washington failed and the Federals fell 34-27 for their seventh consecutive loss. Trailing 34-17 in the third period, thanks mainly to four touchdown passes by Invader quarterback Fred Besana, the Federals began their comeback. Craig James' 24-yard run helped set up Sandro Vitiello's second field goal of the evening. On their next possession, the Federals struck again as Hohensee and Holmes hooked up on their third touchdown pass of the game, set up by a 27-yard pass play to Joey Walters and a 14-yard strike to Mike Harris. When Washington's drive late in the fourth quarter stalled on Oakland's 43, it appeared the comeback effort was over. But with 4:05 to play Feds cornerback Jeff Brown intercepted Besana's pass at the Washington 33. The running attack of Craig James and Billy Taylor began moving the ball downfield again for the Federals and Hohensee's 24-yard pass to Mike Holmes set up a first down at the Oakland two with 1:47 to play. After two incomplete passes, a costly delay of game penalty and a four-yard run by James, Hohensee attempted a quarterback draw play, but was stopped. After yielding 27 points and nearly 200 yards passing in the first half, the Federals' defense limited Oakland to just 70 yards offense in the second half.

Sunday, May 22 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—Boston linebacker Mike Brewington intercepted a Washington pass with seven minutes to play setting up the Breakers winning touchdown as the Federals lost their eighth straight in the rain at RFK Stadium. With the Federals leading 14-13 midway through the fourth period, Brewington intercepted Mike Hohensee's pass on first down at the Federal 35 and returned it one yard. One play later, Breaker quarterback Johnnie Walton hit Charles Smith for a touchdown. Walton then passed to Dennis Johnson for the two-point conversion. Billy Taylor became the first and only Federal running back to rush for over 100 yards in a game as he pounded out 104 yards on 13 carries. He also caught four passes for 73 yards including a 46-yard touchdown grab in the second period. Walton hit 15 of 22 passes in the second half for 196 yards and engineered an 11-play drive which consumed the last 4:33 of the game as the Federals tried in vain to get the ball back. Hohensee helped give the Federals a 14-7 halftime lead by hitting eight of 16 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns. Mike Holmes, who caught a 34-yard touchdown pass, his seventh of the season and fourth in the last two games, suffered a severe thigh bruise that sidelined him the rest of the season.

NEW JERSEY 32, WASHINGTON 29

Sunday, May 29 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—New Jersey's Dave Betz, playing in his first pro game, kicked four field goals including a 50-yarder as time expired giving the Generals a 32-29 win in the rain at RFK Stadium. It was the ninth consecutive loss for the Federals, who set a club record with 496 yards in total offense, but yielded 449 yards to the Generals including a USFL record 194 yards rushing by Herschel Walker. Walker helped New Jersey to an early 17-6 lead when he sped 83 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the game. In the second half the Federals answered back with 313 yards worth of offense. It took the Federals three plays to score in the second half, as Feds quarterback Mike Hohensee hit Joey Walters on a 19-yard pass, Craig James followed with a 20-yard run and Taylor ended the drive with a 32-yard run for a score. A 32-yard pass play to Walters helped set up the Federals next touchdown and a 23-17 lead. After Betz tied the game with a pair of field goals, Hohensee got the lead again for the Federals when he led them 72 yards, the last 19 on a pass to Mike Harris. Sandro Vitiello missed the extra point attempt, but the Federals led 29-23 with just 5:50 to play. Jeff Knapple, starting his first game at quarterback for the Generals, brought his team back hitting four of five passes for 77 yards including a 27-yard touchdown pass to tight end Sam Bowers with 2:10 remaining. In his only mistake, Betz failed on the conversion leaving the score 29-29. After Vitiello missed a 51-yard attempt with 1:01 to play, Knapple again brought New Jersey back. His 27-yard completion to Mark Slawson on third and ten set up the game winning kick by Betz, who was released two weeks later by the Generals.

DENVER 24, WASHINGTON 12

Friday, June 6 at Mile High Stadium

DENVER—Denver scored two touchdowns in the final eight minutes to break open what had been a close game and hand the Federals their tenth straight defeat, 24-12. Trailing 10-6 in the fourth quarter, Washington drove from its own 20 to the Gold 12 in 11 plays, only to have Sandro Vitiello's 32-yard field goal blocked. That play seemed to turn things in Denver's favor. On Washington's next series, receiver Jeff Postell fumbled at the Washington 30-yard line and Maurice Tyler picked it up for Denver and returned it to the Feds 16. Three plays later, Larry Canada scored on a five-yard run to make it 17-6 with 7:20 to play. The Federals sliced the deficit to 17-12 when Leroy Robinson blocked a Denver punt and Mike Matocha fell on the loose ball for a touchdown with 1:49 to play. The Gold recovered Washington's ensuing onsides kick attempt and with 0:41 left to play Canada busted up the middle for a 24-yard touchdown run. Kim McQuilken filled in for Mike Hohensee at quarterback for the Federals when the latter suffered a season-ending knee injury in the second quarter. The Federals outgained Denver 416 to 266 and McQuilken hit 22 of 28 pass attempts, but the offense failed to produce a big play.

WASHINGTON 18 ARIZONA 11

Saturday, June 11 at Sun Devil Stadium

ARIZONA—Interceptions by Mike Guess and Scott Facyson led a defensive effort which allowed the Federals to overcome five turnovers and an 11-0 halftime deficit as Washington snapped its ten-game losing streak with an 18-11 victory over Arizona, losers of seven straight. Arizona quarterback Alan Risher entered the game first in the USFL in TD passes and third in completion percentage. The Federals defense sacked Risher five times and permitted him to hit only seven of 24 passes for no touchdowns and two interceptions. Arizona still managed two scores in the first half as Wally Henry's 36-yard punt return set up their only touchdown and a fumble recovery by Sam Norris led to Phil Denfeld's 27-yard field goal. Trailing at halftime, Guess began his heroics by returning the second half kickoff 54 yards. The Federals marched the remaining 46 yards in seven plays capped by Billy Taylor's six-yard run. The Feds closed the gap to 11-10 with 12 minutes to play on Sandro Vitiello's 48-yard field goal, following Vince Rogusky's block of a Wrangler field goal attempt. Two plays later, Guess picked off a pass at the Wrangler 32 setting up James' five-yard run for the game-winning score. Late in the game, backup quarterback Dan Manucci led the Wranglers on a drive which ended with Facyson's interception at the Federals' ten-yard line with 1:38 to play.

MICHIGAN 27 WASHINGTON 25

Monday, June 20 at Pontiac Silverdome

MICHIGAN—In one of their finest efforts of the season, the Federals hung tough at the home of the USFL champion Michigan Panthers, but for the fourth time this season, the Federals lost on a field goal in the final minute, 27-25. Washington trailed 17-6 in the second quarter as Anthony Carter caught a 37-yard scoring pass on the sixth play of the game and Ronnie Paggett partially blocked a Federals punt to set up another touchdown. Sandro Vitiello provided the Feds with a lift on the last play of the first half when he hit a career-best 51-yard field goal. Federals safety Doug Greene intercepted Bobby Hebert's first pass of the second half and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown making the score 17-15. When Washington recovered the ensuing onsides kick things looked even better, but Billy Taylor fumbled and Clarence Chapman recovered for the Panthers, who marched 29 yards for a touchdown. A 21-yard run by Craig James and a 31-yard scamper by Curtis Bledsoe led to the Federals' next TD, a one-yard run by Taylor, as Washington closed to within 24-22. After Bojovic missed a 27-yard field goal attempt, the Federals offense ate up over six minutes on a drive which resulted in Vitiello's 45-yard three-pointer, giving Washington its first and only lead. After an exchange of punts, Michigan took over with 6:49 to play and drove 73 yards in ten plays to set up Bojovic's game-winner. The key play in the drive was Hebert's 36-yard pass to Ken Lacy on third down and four at the Michigan 11.

WASHINGTON 28 LOS ANGELES 21

Sunday, June 26 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—Federals defensive end Coy Bacon sacked Los Angeles quarterback Mike Rae on fourth down at the Feds' 38-yard line with 3:46 remaining to preserve the Federals' third win of the season, a 28-21 decision over the Express. Down 14-0 in the second quarter, Washington exploded for 21 second-half points and outgained the Express 231-96, after getting outgained 205-103 in the first half. A fumble by Craig James at the Federals' eight-yard line set up LA's first touchdown and the Express marched 81 yards in nine plays in the second quarter for their second score to take a 14-0 lead. Washington's Doug Greene intercepted his ninth pass of the season at LA's 25 and Billy Taylor's ensuing three-yard run made the score 14-7 midway through the second period. With just 0:11 left in the first half LA's starting quarterback Tom Ramsey suffered a sprained ankle and was replaced by Rae for the remainder of the game. In the third period, Eric Robinson's 25-yard punt return gave the Federals a first down at the LA 40. With James rushing three times for the final 31 yards, Washington scored tying the game at 14. On their next possession, Feds quarterback Kim McQuilken hooked up with Mike Harris for a 32-yard scoring pass giving Washington the lead. The Express tied the game on their first series of the fourth quarter, but the Federals came right back as James carried up the middle for the last 18 yards giving Washington the lead with 6:28 to play.

WASHINGTON 21, PHILADELPHIA 14

Sunday, July 3 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

WASHINGTON—In their greatest moment, the Federals closed out the season with a stunning 21-14 upset of the Atlantic Division champion Philadelphia Stars. It was Washington's third win in the last four weeks. For the second straight week the Federals trailed 14-0, but rallied with 21 straight points. Behind the running of Craig James and Billy Taylor, the Federals rolled up 155 yards rushing, most yielded by the Stars all season. The Feds defense, meanwhile, held Philadelphia to just 46 yards total offense in the second half. Washington failed to get off a punt in the first quarter at their own 40 setting up the visitors' first score, a 17-yard run by Allen Harvin, who was filling in for injured Kelvin Bryant. With Philadelphia quarterback Chuck Fusina hitting eight of ten passes for 93 yards the Stars drove the length of the field for a 14-0 lead. Feds wide receiver Stan Rome, who caught a career-high eight catches for 122 yards, caught a 19-yard scoring pass from Kim McQuilken just before halftime as Washington began to come to life. On their first series of the second half, McQuilken led a scoring drive of 77 yards as Rome caught four passes for 46 yards. Two possessions later, on a drive which consumed almost eight minutes, Washington drove 81 yards capped by McQuilken's first touchdown ever as a pro. Feds rookie linebacker Mike Corvino helped stop two Philadelphia drives in the final quarter with an interception and a sack.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS GATE AND WILL CALL: The press entrance at RFK Stadium is located at Gate A, to the right of the main entrance. The will call window is located just to the right of the stadium's main entrance. All credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at the will call window. Both the press gate and the will call window will be open 90 minutes before kickoff.

PARKING: Parking is available to the media in Lot 5.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Press box space is reserved for the working news media. Requests should be made at lease one week in advance and directed to:

Rick Vaughn
Director of Media Relations
1660 L Street, N.W., Suite 915
Washington, D.C. 20036

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television will be assigned to the TV booth located just below the main press box. Visiting radio will be stationed in the upper press box. When possible, we will station the visiting radio in the lower television booth. Spotters and statisticians are available upon advance request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Only accredited working photographers and cameramen are allowed on sidelines. They must wear a "field photo" credential and remain behind the restricted boundaries. Bench areas are off limits at all times.

LOCKER ROOMS: Only accredited working media are allowed in locker rooms after the game. There is no admission before the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: Statistical information is supplied before, during and after the game. Coaches quotes will also be supplied immediately following the game. Scores of other games will be announced and posted as received. Refreshments will be served in the press lounge before game, half-time and after game.

TRANSPORTATION: Rides to National Airport will be arranged for visiting media with tight departure schedules.

HISTORY OF THE FEDERALS

May 11 Formation of the United States Football League is announced at a New York City press conference. The twelve charter franchises are Boston, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington, Tampa Bay, Oakland, Denver, Arizona, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Birmingham.

July 21 Washington owner Berl Bernhard names James M. Gould as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer and Dick Myers as General Manager and Executive Vice President.

August 24 At a press conference in Washington, owner Berl Bernhard announces the name "Federals" and the team colors—kelly green and white trimmed with black and silver. General Manager Dick Myers announces the appointment of Ray Jauch as the Federals head coach. Jauch coached 12 seasons in the Canadian Football League and leaves the CFL as the league's fourth winningest coach. Plans for a cheerleading squad and show troupe are also revealed.

September 8 The Federals announce that they have signed a seven-year lease to play all home games at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium Federals General Manager Dick Myers also announced the signing of first seven players including former Washington Redskins Mike Bragg and Buddy Hardeman. Also signed were Charlie Wysocki, the University of Maryland's all-time leading rusher; former Maryland all-America placekicker Dale Castro; defensive tackle Tony Suber; quarterback Chris Garrity; and defensive back Hollis Hall.

October 9 Federals stage a cheerleading tryout and over 400 women compete.

October 20 The Washington Federals Foundation is formed. Former NFL all-pro Terry Metcalf is named director of the foundation and Director of Player Relations.

October 21 Federals sign a contract with WMAL Radio, an ABC owned station in Washington, to broadcast live its entire 18-game schedule.

November 6 Federals hold open free agent tryout camp and 618 candidates attend. Three free agents are signed.

1983

January 4 The Federals make Southern Methodist University running back Craig James as their number one selection in the first USFL college draft. Federals draft a total of 52 other college seniors including All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections Dave Pacella and Mike Corvino from the University of Maryland. Federals also trade with the Philadelphia Stars obtaining the rights to quarterback Kim McQuilken.

January 12 Federals sign number one draft choice Craig James to a series of four one-year contracts.

January 27 Federals announce signing of 1982 University of Maryland co-captains Dave Pacella and Mike Corvino, both territorial draft selections.

January 31 USFL training camps open across the country with the Federals inaugural camp located at the Gator Bowl Complex in Jacksonville, Florida. A total of 90 players report to opening drills.

February 6 Federals announce signing of quarterback Mike Hohensee, the team's fifth round open draft choice from the University of Minnesota. Hohensee leaves Minnesota as the school's all-time leading passer.

February 16 Federals scrimmage the Birmingham Stallions in the Gator Bowl, the first organized competition in the club's history.

March 3 At a press conference at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, Federals announce the signing of former all-Canadian Football League receiver Joey Walters to an undisclosed contract. Walters caught a CFL record 101 passes in 1982 with Saskatchewan.

March 6 George Allen returns to RFK Stadium as head coach of the Chicago Blitz as a new era in professional football is launched with the inaugural game between the Blitz and Federals. A crowd of 38,010 turned out despite the heavy rain as the Blitz stun the Federals 28-7. Wide receiver Walker Lee scores the first touchdown in Federals history on a 19-yard pass from Mike Hohensee.

March 27 Federals record first win ever, beating the Michigan Panthers, 22-16, in overtime at RFK Stadium.

May 26 Federals President James M. Gould resigns to accept position with John Bassett Enterprises. Bassett is the majority owner of the Tampa Bay Bandits. Karen W. Randall is later named Chief Operating Officer.

July 1 Charles Garcia is named Federals Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager. He replaces Mike Faulkiner, who resigned in March to take a position with the New York Jets. Garcia leaves a scouting position with the Cleveland Browns to join the Federals.

July 19 Chicago Bears linebacker Bruce Herron plays out his option and signs with Federals. Herron is a five-year NFL veteran.

October 18 USFL ownership approves a new divisional alignment and playoff format for 1984. Federals will play in the Atlantic Division of the Eastern Conference, along with Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and New Jersey. Tampa Bay is awarded USFL Championship Game in 1984.
